

SEPTEMBER

FRIENDS TALK: THE WITCHES OF ESSEX WITH KATE COLE

FRIDAY 7 SEPTEMBER

7:30pm

Part of the Friends of Braintree District Museum series of talks.

Tickets: £3 voluntary donation

SHOWTIME!: WARTIME CLASSICS WITH BRIAN SHAW

TUESDAY 11 SEPTEMBER

2:00pm - 4:00pm

Brian will be performing classic hits from not only World War Two but to commemorate the centenary of the end of The Great War he will feature some popular song from this era too.

Tickets: £10 (includes refreshments)

Community Transport is available on 01376 557883

BOOKING ESSENTIAL

WALK AND TALK: THE GREAT WAR WITH MIKE BARDELL

TUESDAY 18 SEPTEMBER

2:00pm MEETING AT THE MUSEUM

As the Centenary of the Armistice approaches join local historian Mike Bardell for a two hour walk looking at Braintree and how the town and its civilians fared in the first era of Total War.

Tickets: £4 (Please wear comfortable shoes)

BOOKING ESSENTIAL

TEA & TALK: FASHIONING THE FOUNDLINGS WITH JANETTE BRIGHT

TUESDAY 24 SEPTEMBER

2:00pm – 3:00pm

How the eighteenth-century London Foundling Hospital turned infants into "useful citizens". Find out what the children learned, and how, and why sewing, knitting and darning was part of their education.

Tickets: FREE with admission charge (includes refreshments)

BOOKING ESSENTIAL

HERITAGE OPEN DAYS
FREE MUSEUM ENTRY
SATURDAY 7 & 15 SEPTEMBER

heritage open days

